

Housing Retrofit vs Grid Decarbonisation

An STBA workshop hosted by CADW - 23rd October 2019, Caerphilly Castle, Wales

10.30	REGISTRATION (tea & coffee)
11.00	Welcome and introduction Gwilym Hughes - Deputy Director and Head of Cadw
11.10	National and international targets on sustainability and decarbonisation Nigel Griffiths - Director, STBA
11.30	Welsh Government policy on decarbonising existing homes Hannah Blythyn , Deputy Minister for Housing and Local Government, Wales
11.45	Decarbonised energy supply grids and whole-system flexibility Oliver Lancaster , Future of Energy Manager, Wales & West Utilities Ltd
12.30	Contributory session: “What are the key considerations in this debate?” Chaired by Peter Draper - Sustainability Chair, STBA
13.00	LUNCH (vegetarian)
14.00	The cost of retrofit – financial and carbon (embodied & in-use) Harry Paticas , Arboreal Architecture
14.20	The shape of retrofit for the future Peter Rickaby , Energy & sustainability consultant, Chair of the BSI Retrofit Standards Task Group, Director of UKCMB at UCL
14.40	Whole Life Carbon implications of re-use and recycling historic buildings Adala Leeson , Head of Social and Economic Research, Historic England
15.00	Contributory session: “Should supply outcomes change retrofit targets?” Chaired by Nigel Griffiths - Director - STBA
15.30	Networking until 16.00 (tea & coffee)