

1400 1415

Business School

Devolution and Federalism in a post- Referendum United Kingdom

Urban and Regional Economics Seminar Group (URESG) Meeting

Open University in Scotland 22 - 23 January 2015

Malaama

14.00 – 14.15	Welcome
14.15 - 15.00	Where now for the UK and Scotland? Jim Gallagher (Nuffield College, Oxford)
15.00 - 15.45	Smith, Scotland and the UK: international finance lessons from federal systems Duncan Maclennan (University of St Andrews)
15.45 - 16.00	Tea
16.00 - 16.45	Scotland's Finances after the Smith Commission David Bell (University of Stirling)
16.45 - 17.30	The Centrality of Social Welfare in the future of Post-Independence Referendum Scotland? Gerry Mooney (Open University)
16.45 - 17.30	Post-Independence Referendum Scotland?

Day 2

9.30 - 10.15	Prospects for Fiscal Devolution within the United Kingdom after the Scottish Referendum David Heald (University of Aberdeen)
10.15 - 11.00	Regions Return? Possibilities for transforming LEPs into effective regional development bodies' David Bailey (Aston University)
11.00 - 11.15	Coffee
11.15 - 12.00	Devolution and growth opportunities for small and medium UK cities. Zach Wilcox (Centre for Cities)

referendum UK."

David Waite (Cardiff University)

12.45 Close and Lunch

Innovation Knowledge Development Policy ScotlandResearch and Knowledge Exchange

Innovation
Knowledge
Development

12.00 - 12.45

Policy Scotland
Research and Knowledge Exchan

City dealing outwith England: the asymmetric landscape of city policymaking in the post-